Who We Are: WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS

KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL
Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.
KIWANIS CLUBS perform voluntary community services beyond the capabilities of the individual. "YOUNG CHILDREN: PRIORITY ONE" is the international theme reflected in many of our Club projects.
KIWANIS is for those individuals who want to make a difference in their community.

THE ED CHAPMAN AWARDS
Ed Chapman was the 3rd President of the Kiwanis Club of Walnut Valley. He was a building contractor who helped any young person in the San Gabriel Valley to develop "trade" skills.
For more than 35 years the Chapman Awards have been presented to college- or trade school-bound students who normally don't qualify for such recognition by GPA standards alone.

HOW TO BECOME A KIWANIS MEMBER
Contact Mr. Bert Brandt, Club Secretary, at (909) 629-2388, or any Kiwanis member at this evening's event.
You are also invited to our weekly breakfast meetings at: Holiday Inn Select, 21725 Gateway Center Drive (one block west of this building), Friday mornings at 7:00 a.m.

The 39th Annual Chapman Awards recognized 81 students from 7 high schools (Santana, Rowland, and Nogales from Rowland USD, Walnut, Diamond Bar and Hockwalt from Walnut Valley USD, and Diamond Ranch from Pomona USD). Each of those 7 high schools also chose an Ed Chapman scholarship recipient, plus a student was nominated for the Joe Dyer scholarship, from which 1 was chosen.
