President-of-the-Month Aggie Kee welcomed Ralph Mendez, Don Ruh, Don Ferderer, Larry McMullen, Bob Santo, Sal Del Campo, Manuel Baca, Richard Malooly, and Damian Sandoval. Brad Manning, Paul White, and Vern Moyer joined us from West Covina; Mike Tanaka and Harry Anderson, from Covina-South Hills; Mary Ferderer and Bea McMullen, loyal spouses of Walnut Valley members; and Jane Woods of the Haynes Family of Programs, today's speaker and donation recipient. Ralph Mendez led the group in our Pledge of Allegiance and Bea McMullen offered this morning's invocation.

Jane Woods reviewed programs at Haynes over the past year. Their schools now include the School for Autism and Developmental Disabilities and the School for Emotional Disturbance and Learning Disabilities. Both schools are state-certified non-public schools co-ed K-12. Their programs now include a short-term residential treatment center, emergency shelter care, transitional housing, mental health services, wrap-around services for children and their families, and a group of special education, speech and language, behavioral analysts, and mental health counselors and therapists to develop individualized programs for residents. We extend deepest appreciation to all of the members and guests who donated gift cards and spur-of-the moment cash contributions. Collectively we presented a package valued at $465.00 to Jane for their holiday program.
