Today's Meeting Highlights...

From Wednesday's Board Meeting, Aggie reviewed our plans to participate in the Diamond Bar Winterfest on January 21, 2017. We will submit an application as a food vendor, menu yet to be decided. Please put this date on your calendars as we will need everyone's help and that of our Diamond Bar Key Club.

Details for the upcoming food distribution were reviewed and will be updated again at our meeting on Friday, December 16. The can sorting at Walnut High School will take place at 12:10 p.m. on Thursday, December 15, at the High School stadium. Boxes will be taped together as the Key Club members sort the food. Hams will be delivered by Ralph. We will serve pizza that day to the participating members.

On Friday, December 16, Kiwanis members will meet at 12:10 p.m. at the stadium to pack the hams and vegetables. We will meet at the stadium at 7:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 17, to prepare for the distribution to begin at 8:00 a.m. with a target finish date of 10:00 a.m. Dress warmly; rain is in the forecast for both Friday and Saturday!

A winning opportunity was selected for Ray, but there was no Joker available! Ray donated his returned dollar to the PTP can.  Hail, Kiwanis! ***

Today's Speaker Highlights...

Richard Malooly formally introduced David King of Isaiah's Rock who visited today and reviewed the history of their program for the benefit of our newer members. The organization began in 1989 and this year will provide toys for 1,800 children along with food distribution for many more. The distribution will be held on December 24 beginning at 8:00 a.m. at Chino City Hall. This is a huge event for Key Club participation. Current Diamond Bar High School President Valerie Sato recently told the members at the General Meeting that this will be the best event that they do all year long. David estimated that there were approximately 354 Key Club members at the food distribution during the Thanksgiving holiday.

Following his presentation, Richard presented David with our annual contribution of $300.00 toward the efforts of the organization.
