WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Richard Malooly invited Larry McMillan to lead us in today's Pledge of Allegiance, followed by Octavio Figueroa leading our patriotic song. Bert Brandt read this morning's Kiwanis Invocation. Joining us today from Hacienda Heights were current Division 35 Lt.-Governor Dave Wallach, President Lon Salgren, Kathy Young and her husband Sim, Lorena (also with Boy Scouts of America), and Jesus (also with the YMCA). Paul Stump, who offered the Invocation at last evening's Chapman Awards, joined us this morning and Mt. SAC Circle K were represented by President Carmina and Brian, Israel, and Jasmine. Wolfgang Shane visited again and submitted an application to join our club. Dr. Shane, a local chiropractor, also donated a couple of massages for our golf tournament.

Carmina announced that the Circle K installation of officers for 2009-2010 will be held on May 22 from 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. at the Green Field Brazilian Steak House. Tickets are $20.00 each. Circle K now have 50 "interested" members and 20-25 active members.

Trudy Brandt reported that Bob Krantz successfully came through his surgery for the removal of one kidney and hopes to see us soon.

Ray McMullen thanked Aggie Kee, Bert Brandt, and Octavio Figueroa for their assistance in preparing for the Chapman awards last evening. It was Standing Room Only at the AQMD. Diamond Ranch High School did not participate this year and we don't know where we would have put them! Ray was our Master of Ceremonies and Manuel Baca delivered our opening address. Bert handed out the scholarship checks in the absence of Richard Malooly. Just to stress the importance of our members interrelating with our Sponsored Youth, Aggie shared the story of one award recipient who had expected to be there with her parents. When Aggie expressed her regret that her parents did not make it, the reply was, "That's OK. My Kiwanis family are here."

All volunteers for the golf tournament should be at Via Verde between 9:30-10:00 a.m. on Monday. We are still accepting raffle prizes through noon on Monday.

Dave Wallach inducted Martha Valenzuela as our newest member. Richard Malooly, Martha's sponsor, has great hopes for Martha's success as a Kiwanian as she "thrives on doing things for other people". Richard explained our tradition of signing a new member's bib - all members have three weeks to get it done or fines will be assessed.

Lon Salgren highlighted Hacienda Heights rib fest last weekend. This is their big event to raise funds for their scholarship program and the grand auction prize was a young yellow lab mix that went to Brad Manning for $400.00. *** Lorena and Jesus spoke briefly on current activities within their respective organizations for young people. (Please continue on Page 2.)

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Dave Wallach presented information on current Division 35 activities and threw around some current anagrams: GPS (Growth Powers Service), MPG (Membership Provides Growth), and T(eamwork), E(nthusiasm), A(ction), M(embership), S(ervice). Our Division 35 enjoy having the Number One membership growth in Cal-Nev-Ha.

Ballots were handed out for today’s election and the following members will serve as club officers for Oct. 1, 2009-Sept. 30, 2010: Don Ferderer, President Designate; Ed Koenke, President Elect; Octavio Figueroa, Vice President; Kate Hartwig, Treasurer; and Trudy Brandt, Aggie Kee, Ray McMullen, Ted Miller, and Martha Valenzuela as Members of the Board. *** An invitation was extended through email to all members to help Mary and Don Ferderer celebrate Mary’s birthday on June 6. Please respond directly to Don as to whether you can attend.

A winning opportunity was selected for our guest Lorena, but the Joker was not going home with any stranger! The money stays in the fund. *** Hail, Kiwanis!
