WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Richard Malooly invited Don Nettles to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by Ray McMullen guiding us through our patriotic song and Bert Brandt reading today's Kiwanis invocation. Guests today included Wolfgang Shane and Debbie McIntosh, today's speaker.

Richard proudly circulated a copy of our newest advertising medium, a laminated bookmark touting the rewards of Kiwanis.

Trudy Brandt reminded all of us of our next DCM to be held on Thursday, May 21, at 6:00 p.m. at the Covina Bowl. The Mt. SAC Circle K will hold their 2009-2010 Installation of Officers at the Green Field. Four members are already planning on attending. Tickets are $20.00 each. The contribution can for Children's Miracle Network was passed around for donations.

Marilyn and Don Nettles celebrated Marilyn's birthday yesterday running (well, maybe not!) through Disneyland and seeing the play Aladdin. Don paid a $6.00 fine for all of this frivolity (up from $5.00!).

Aggie Kee and Ted Miller conducted a less-than-stellar bidding duel for the No Stinkin' Fines badge, and Aggie carried it away for only $10.00. Richard paid $6.00 for not having his badge and fined Manuel Baca $5.00 for not having his badge. Once Manuel paid the $5.00, Rich handed his new badge to him! Don Nettles paid $1.00 for no badge.

We had 106 golfers come out for the tournament on Monday. Raffle prizes were good and we await our financial results.

Debbie McIntosh of Forest Lawn spoke to us on the Meso-American cultures of Mexico, longer established civilizations than those of Europe. Following her presentation, Richard presented Debbie with a special "Sparkle" book on the moon for her granddaughter. Debbie will return in September to speak to us on California Missions.

A winning opportunity was selected for Richard, but no Joker was in the room. OK, not to be found in the deck of cards!

Hail, Kiwanis.
