WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Richard Malooly invited Aggie Kee to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance and we all jointly jumped in to our patriotic song. Bert Brandt read this morning's Kiwanis invocation. Today being Tie Day, many members were caught out of uniform so several dollars flowed towards Kate Hartwig for our coffers. Even though Bert turned the No Stinkin' Fines badge around and tried to pass off the cord as a string tie, our President could see right through that idea and Bert was forced to purchase a tie. Through tragically sad stories of upcoming vacation and distractions beyond comprehension, Don Nettles was fined $1.00 for a poor introduction of guest Mary Ferderer and an additional dollar for arriving late - an unlikely story about waking up and dressing for Sunday rather than Friday! Kate Hartwig was fined $1.00 for being late and because we can not fine a guest, Don Ferderer was fined $1.00 for Mary being late! You had to be there!! Kate graciously threw in additional monies for the weeks that she missed helping her sister through surgery and recuperation. Good to see you again, Kate...and you, too, Glendy Chiang!

With much more decorum, Manuel Baca introduced guest Candy Wen, an employee at Rose Hills. Well, much more decorum until somebody referred to the "late" Mary Ferderer (as in tardy!) and things went downhill with references to Rose Hills. Again, you really had to be there!  Manuel was fined $5.00 for no tie and no wallet. Bert supposedly gave a dirty look at Manuel for not mentioning that Manuel had been on vacation in Monterey, so Bert paid $1.00 for the look and Manuel paid $10.00 for the vacation. What a day for the treasury!

This month's Board Meeting will be held on Thursday, August 13, at 6:30 p.m. at Richard's office.

Aggie mentioned that she and Richard had attended the lunchtime meeting of the LaPuente-Industry club on Tuesday. The Key Club from Rowland High School was supposed to be in attendance, but they were not! LaPuente-Industry invited us to join them for a lunch meeting with the Industry Manufacturers' Council on September 1 where an update on the new stadium will be presented. Let them know if you are coming and be at the Pacific Palms at 11:30 a.m.  Trudy Brandt reported that she and Bert had an Interclub on Wednesday with the Hacienda Heights Club.  The last DCM of Dave Wallach's administration will be held on August 20 at 6:00 p.m. at the Covina Bowl. This is Club History Night and we are also responsible for donating two gifts.

Following Richard's introduction of the spectacular Dr. Wolfgang Shane (as written by the spectacular Dr. Wolfgang Shane!), Wolfgang gave a presentation on "How to Shop for a Mattress". It is recommended that you replace your mattress if you have soft spots, peaks and valleys, lumps and sags (all of these in the mattress!), and wake up stiff in the mornings. Please discuss with Wolfgang for more details if you are in the market to do so. Following his presentation, Wolfgang selected a winning opportunity for Octavio, but Wolfgang remained the only Joker in the room!  Hail, Kiwanis!
