

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Following President Don Ferderer's invitation, Aggie Kee led us in our Pledge of Allegiance; Richard Malooly, our patriotic song; and Bert Brandt, this morning's Invocation. It must have been a phase of the moon, but Larry McMillan actually had a kind word of praise for our singing today. Maybe a positive mood in preparation for tomorrow USC's game with Notre Dame. Our only guest this morning was Assemblyman Curt Hagman, today's speaker.

President Don fined Manuel Baca for a myriad of things - late arrival, no presidential handshake, wearing a tie - whatever else you can think of!

Rich was welcomed back with open arms - his first weekly meeting of the new year. One notices that these outgoing presidents require a little time to recover!

We welcomed Ted Miller back from his recent trip to Branson, Missouri, and Little Rock, Arkansas. With a special note to reader Frank Baker, Ted left your phone number on his desk at home and did not make that phone call to you.

Birthday boys Octavio Figueroa and Larry McMillan CHOSE to hear our birthday song rather than pay a fine. The choices that some people make!

We are still looking for a President-Elect. Please contact President Don if you are interested in this office.

We extended our deepest sympathies to Becky LaSoya and Richard on the death of Becky's sister. Becky, may all of your memories be the good ones...

A multi-divisional Key Club Regional Training Conference will be held tomorrow at the AQMD from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Please sign up to spend some time with our Sponsored Youth if only for a few hours. We now have four Sponsored Youth Clubs - Key Clubs at Diamond Bar, Rowland, and Walnut High Schools and Circle K at Mt. SAC - totaling about 1,000 members. Please join in the fun.

Due to scheduling conflicts at the time of our Installation Dinner, Rich presented appreciation plaques to Aggie Kee (Bulletin Writer), Kate Hartwig (Treasurer), and Ted Miller (Program Chairperson Extraordinaire). The Kiwanian of the Year award was presented to both Trudy and Bert Brandt so there was no need to split it in half! President Don immediately fined Richard ten dollars for not having the awards on time. What an opportunist!

The Sheriffs Department will conduct tours during October 26-30 and then ask for on-line feedback assessing police department performance. President Don will check the tour schedule and let us know so that some of us as a community organization can participate in this project.

Our 60th District Assemblyman Curt Hagman was elected in 2008 and recently became Assembly Floor Leader. Mr. Hagman is a Kiwanian from Chino Hills and former Chino Hills Mayor and Council Member. Mr. Hagman reviewed Assembly work on the current California budget woes and closed with mention that the last lawsuit had been thrown out regarding the construction of the NFL stadium in the City of Industry. Looks like a go!

Mr. Hagman selected a winning opportunity for himself, but the Joker was not in the room. Well, maybe! Hail, Kiwanis!
