WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

With Mary and President Don President Elect Ted Miller presided Past President Richard Malooly to and all of us raised voices together in offered this morning's Invocation. Treasurer Carol Scanlon, Tex from the South Hills Club and Renee Haynes Children's Home in La included Kate Hartwig and Manuel Baca.

Ferderer still sailing the High Seas, over today's meeting. Ted invited lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance our patriotic song. Don Nettles We welcomed Dick Bishop, Williams, and Harry Anderson Jackson, our speaker from Leroy Verne. Late arrivals today Rich reported that he and Aggie Kee attended DCM last night and we received a banner patch for Young Children - Priority One in recognition of our club's contributions to the Children's Miracle Network.

Don Nettles contributed $20.00 to our treasury in appreciation of his recent vacation in Utah. Don did want to explain how Aggie didn't want to hear it!

Dead Horse Point received its name, but

Renee Jackson from Leroy Haynes reviewed the Holiday Gift Program involving adopting either an individual child or a cottage for the holidays. We told Renee that we would once again participate by collecting gift cards and she will return on December 11 to collect the cards.

Following Renee's presentation, she selected a winning opportunity for none other than Martha Valenzuela - a Valenzuela for a third consecutive week! But staying true to form, the Joker was off somewhere with Trudy and Bert Brandt! A shout to all members who were not there - We Missed You!!

Hail, Kiwanis!
