WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

In the absence of President Don Ferderer, President-Elect Ted Miller conducted this morning's meeting. Aggie Kee led us in the Pledge of Allegiance; Kate Hartwig, God Bless America; Don Nettles, today's Invocation. Aggie introduced our return engagement speaker Jay Johnstone, former professional baseball player, and Ralph Mendez of Whittier Filtration.

Since our attendance was very low this morning – Don Nettles, Ted Miller, Kate Hartwig, Rich Malooly, Ray McMullen, and Aggie Kee – Ted made a presidential decision to delay until next Friday, January 15, the bidding for the January No Stinkin' Fines badge. Make sure that you get there early for a good seat!! Ted thought that he might also fine Don Ferderer for not passing on the badge for today's meeting.

Jay Johnstone, former professional baseball player with the Philadelphia Phillies, Los Angeles Dodgers, Chicago Cubs, Los Angeles(?) Angels, Oakland Athletics, San Diego Padres, and Chicago White Sox, presented an intimate fireside chat around the table. The lore of the game prevailed!

Jay selected a winning opportunity for Rich Malooly, but no Joker was found.

Hail, Kiwanis!
