WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Don Ferderer invited Aggie Kee to lead our Pledge of Allegiance; Richard Malooly, our patriotic song; and Ted Miller, this morning's Invocation.

Joining us today were Patrick Denny of the Census Bureau; Sgt. Joe Lamonica, Sheriff's Station/Booster Club; and Denise Patton and Pat Silva of West Covina Kiwanis.

Late fines were assessed to Kate Hartwig (and she was earlier than usual!)

Aggie announced that CHAPERONES are needed to attend the Key Club Conclave to be held at AQMD on Saturday, February 6, from 12 noon to 5:00 p.m. Please contact Aggie to sign up for this event. The purpose of Conclave is to elect new officers for the 2010-2011 year. Electing them at this time of year enables the incoming officers to initiate plans over the summer for the new school year.

It has come to our attention that the Walnut High School Key Club have not paid their dues for the year 2009-2010. If this is not accomplished soon, we may not be seeing them at the Conclave.

If you need a gift for Valentine's Day, please consider the purchase of one dozen assorted-color roses for $30.00. Eight dollars from each purchase will benefit the 2011 Kiwanis Rose Float. Please contact Dave Wallach no later than January 28. Roses will be delivered to the DCM on February 11.

The mystery of the No Stinkin' Fines badge is solved. It WAS at President Don's office and he paid a $20.00 fine for Failure to Realize. Richard Malooly paid a $10.00 fine for Failure to Be More Affirmative. (Must have been the influence of the Sheriff's Department employee in the room!)

SPORTS DAY - FEBRUARY 5

Come to the meeting that Friday Morning --Wear the tee shirt or sweatshirt of your favorite sports team – college, professional, grandchild. Heavy fines apply and no rentals are available. Caps and hats do not qualify.

Patrick Denny made a few brief comments regarding the significance of the 2010 Census. The program dates back to 1790 and is vital to determine funds appropriations across the country. All information is strictly confidential. Forms will be mailed in March with a deadline of April 10 for return.

Sgt. Lamonica has been with the Sheriff's Department for 29 years, 13 years in Walnut-Diamond Bar. He specializes in Community Affairs and shared information on the Booster Club that assist the station in ensuring a safe community. The Booster Club support Sheriff's Reserves, Disaster Communications Services, Civilian Volunteers, Volunteers on Patrol, and the Explorer Post for Walnut-Diamond Bar. They are looking for more participation so please consider them in your "spare time". The Board meet on the first Wednesday of each month and there is an annual meeting for all members. The Sheriff's Open House is scheduled for May 22 – plan on attending.

West Covina Texas Hold 'Em - March 6 - $25.00 Buy-In - Contact Denise Patton at (626)506-7772

Following the presentation, a winning opportunity was selected for Richard Malooly. Rich had already left the meeting so President Don selected for him, but once again the Joker remained with us. ***
Hail, Kiwanis!
