WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Following President Don Ferderer's invitation, Wolfgang Shane led our Pledge of Allegiance; Ray McMullen, our patriotic song; and Ted Miller, this morning's Invocation. Our only guest today was Donna Niederhelm, our speaker from Forest Lawn. Great to have Ray back with us. He elected to pay a $5.00 fine rather than detail why he hasn't been with us!

To take advantage of Ted being with us at this meeting, President Don began the raffle for the February No Stinkin' Fines badge. Richard ended up with it again for $16.00 – no particular reason – he was just trying to get Wolfgang to boost it up! Since Wolfgang only had $15.00 in his wallet....

Richard offered $5.00 to pay his late fine, decreasing it by $1.00 to go to the Opportunity Drawing. Since we did not have an OD today (Later!), he decreased his payment to $2.00, so at least we made $1.00 over the usual late fine. Attempting to obtain more funds for the treasury, Rich decided that Manuel Baca should be fined $1.00 for stealing Rich's golf club. We don't know the entire story (fabrication?), but Manuel said that he did not steal it – that somehow it just ended up in his golf bag. Since the law makes a statement about "possession", Manuel ended up parting with $1.00 for having the club.

Wolfgang announced that an E-Waste Collection will be held at the AQMD tomorrow from 8:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m. Pack it up, bring it out, dump it out!

So back to the story of NO OPPORTUNITY DRAWING...Kate walked out and left her Kiwanis Bag in the office. We had no check to pay for our meal, no Opportunity tickets, and no place to hide President Don's bell if she should happen to pick it up! Since eight of us were at the meeting, Kate offered to be fined the $8.00 that would have been collected. Other members started throwing in dollars anyway and by the time they were done, there wasn't anything left for Kate to be fined. But being the Real Trooper that she is, Kate matched it anyway!

Aggie again announced that CHAPERONES are needed to attend the Key Club Conclave to be held at AQMD on Saturday, February 6, from 12 noon to 5:00 p.m. and circulated a sign-up sheet. Thank you, Ray, Rich, and President Don for signing up. We will circulate the sheet again next week. We do not yet know the status of the Walnut High School Key Club paying their dues for the year 2009-2010.

If you need a gift for Valentine's Day, please consider the purchase of one dozen assorted-color roses for $30.00. Eight dollars from each purchase will benefit the 2011 Kiwanis Rose Float. Please contact Dave Wallach no later than January 28. Roses will be delivered to the DCM on Thursday, February 11. If you can not attend the DCM, someone from our club who attends will be glad to pick them up for you.

SPORTS DAY - FEBRUARY 5

Wear the tee shirt or sweatshirt of your favorite sports team – college, professional, grandchild. Heavy fines apply and no rentals are available. Caps and hats do not qualify. Wolfgang will be our speaker and Lt.-Governor Tony Miller and other members of his Glendora Kiwanis will be joining us for an Interclub. Let’s show everyone a good turnout!

Donna Niederhelm of Forest Lawn gave a very informative presentation regarding Advance Planning – the forethought to make it easier for those you love. Donna gave a Planning Portfolio to each of us and just glancing through it, we all agreed that this is a very well thought out document. * Hail, Kiwanis...
