WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Don Ferderer invited Aggie Kee to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance. My Country 'Tis of Thee burst forth under the guidance of Don Nettles, and Ted Miller offered this morning's invocation.

Ray McMullen introduced Rae Duncan of Friends of the Diamond Bar Library, this morning's speaker. Ray should learn that standing to introduce guests eagerly seeking fining material. For the second wearing his Kiwanis badge. Ray again stated until Ray formally requests a replacement badge makes one highly visible to a President week, Don fined Ray one dollar for not that his badge is lost, but Don felt that that was just too bad for Ray!

Manuel Baca (aka Dean Martin!) circulated a sign-up sheet for tickets for Puttin' On The Hits to be held on Saturday, March 13, at Mt. San Antonio College. Tickets are $20.00 each. Thirteen people signed up this morning and the form will be circulated again next week. Saturday night is the big sell-out for this event, so why wait until next week to sign up? Call Manuel (Ticket Seller) at (909) 612-0778 or Aggie (Sign-Up Form Keeper) at (909) 861-8447 to reserve a spot immediately. If you can't make it for dinner (time and location to be decided), sign up for tickets only! Everybody loves somebody sometime...

Richard Malooly attended the Booster Club meeting to organize this year's golf tournament. The flyers should be mailed during the coming week and start collecting those door prizes now! May 17 is the date at the Via Verde Country Club.

Mt. SAC Youth work the required. us at Mt. SAC your calendars This one's for Coach Ruh!

Days will be held on Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3. We need volunteers to souvenir booth, the field as needed, and anywhere else that extra hands are April 10 is Kiwanis One Day and other local Kiwanis clubs may be joining to fulfill their participation for One Day. This is Easter weekend – check soon so you are ready to participate when the sign-up sheets are circulated.

The Diamond Bar City Birthday is Saturday, April 17, and we will be serving Carne and Pollo Asada. ALL HANDS are needed on this one so please put it on your calendar. This is EXPOSURE to the community – please be there!

Local high school principals have received their Early Alerts from Ray for the Chapman Awards on May 13. Aggie will be mailing confirming letters this week and invitation letters will be going out to the Superintendents. The AQMD auditorium has been reserved for 7:00 p.m. and we hope that all club members will plan on attending. We are always saying, "...it's about the kids..." and this evening truly is. If you attend one Chapman presentation, you will attend every one thereafter.

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Don Nettles attended the Walnut Valley Water District meeting last night reviewing proposed rate increases. There was a very large audience at the AQMD and a vote was postponed until next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at the District office. Don did see Mr. Cross and Mr. Layton and reports they are both in good health!

Kathleen Newe was out of town today and Rae Duncan visited us to update us on activities at the Friends of the Diamond Bar Library. Rae has been with the group for 25 years and states that this is the best group with which she has ever been involved. The goals of the group are to increase literacy and the love of reading. They sponsor Read Together Diamond Bar, Festival of Authors, the annual Wine Soiree (in its 17th year), Basically Books (the only book store in Diamond Bar), and the children's Spelling Bee among other activities. The Third Annual Spelling Bee will be held on February 27 at Mt. SAC. The Friends consist of 160 members with 14 Board Members. Annual dues are $5.00 for Seniors; $10.00, Individual; $20.00, family; $100.00, Corporate; and $150.00 for a Lifetime membership.

Our own Rich Malooly will again be the Master of Ceremonies for the Soiree to be held at the Diamond Bar Center on Sunday, April 11, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. Tickets are $50.00 per person, going to $60.00 at the door. Proceeds will benefit efforts such as repairing worn books, adding books, and increasing the foreign collection at the library.

The library includes a children's area and a program known as A Family Place for children from birth to three years of age. Jesse Lanz is the Acting Community Library Manager. He has been there about a month and Rae describes him as "young and enthusiastic". He plans to continue the great programs already in place and incorporate ever-expanding technology. The goal of the Friends for 2010 is improving the Community Room.

Basically Books moved again to its new location at 23447 Golden Springs Drive, the junction of Golden Springs and Diamond Bar Boulevard. Visit www.dblibraryfriends.org and review the new store hours. The store had a soft opening last week with a Grand Opening scheduled for March 6 at 10:00 a.m. and a ribbon cutting ceremony with the Chamber of Commerce at noon on March 16. Book Discussion Groups are held the fourth Tuesday of every month at the store at 7:00 p.m. If you are interested in the discussion group, contact Alice Moffitt at (909)594-9954.

Following her presentation, Rae selected a winning opportunity for President Don, but no Joker was found. Rae herself offered opportunities. Three additional winners walked away with a book – Richard, Ray, and Manuel! We deemed it very interesting that all three gentlemen were sitting at Rae's table!...Hail, Kiwanis!
