WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

At the invitation of President Don Ferderer, Don Nettles led us in our Pledge of Allegiance and Long-Time-Member-But-Treated-Like-A-Guest Don Ruh guided us through our patriotic song. Much to the delight of Larry McMillan, we never sounded so good! Ted Miller offered this morning's invocation.

Well, it has finally happened – President Don came up minus one bell at this morning's meeting. He swears that he had it when he got there, but we guess that he forgot the rosin!

Today's guests Bea McMillan and Sandi Ruh were introduced by Ray McMullen, and Ted Miller introduced Tom Marino of the West Covina Kiwanis Club.

Don Ruh was fined $3.00 for celebrating Sandi's birthday this month and should have been fined a lot more for his comment, "Sandi, why did I bring you?" Oh, the shame of it! Nancy McMullen recently celebrated her birthday so we separated Ray from the ten dollar bill in his wallet!

Immediate Past President Richard Malooly paid $2.00 for not wearing his name badge and $10.00 for his phony-baloney made-up badge that he was trying to pass off as the No Stinkin' Fines badge.

Donate Life Run/Walk

REGISTRATION FEE OF $15.00 IS DUE TO LARRY NO LATER THAN MARCH 26

Registration on day of event is $20.00 and no tee shirt will be available.

Larry McMillan circulated a sign-up sheet for Donate Life Run/Walk to be held on Saturday, May 1, at Cal State Fullerton. Registration fee is $15.00 and includes a tee shirt with a wonderful photo of Larry's beautiful daughter Laura McMillan Fuge on the back of the shirt. The sign-up form will be circulated again on both March 19 and March 26 so don't miss your chance to participate!

Puttin' On The Hits is tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at Mt. SAC. Reservations have been made at the Golden Fortune for 5:30 p.m.

REMINDER

Program Chairperson Ted Miller is requesting assistance with securing speakers for our weekly meetings. This is a huge task and Ted is running low on contacts. Please help out and offer names, topics, agencies, etc.

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Those members who did not sign up as a chaperone for the Key Club Division 35 East ceremonies at the Diamond Bar Center now have a second chance! The date has been changed to Sunday evening, March 28, from 6:00-10:00 p.m. Aggie circulated a sign-up sheet asking all present to be generous with their time. You can sign up for the entire evening or take a shift – 6:00-8:00 p.m. or 8:00-10:00 p.m. Kudos to Ted Miller, Rich Malooly, Mary and Don Ferderer, and Aggie Kee for signing up. The sheet will be circulated again next week so please look at your calendars.

Aggie Kee also circulated a sign-up sheet for Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3, for the Mt. SAC Youth Days. Many thanks to those who signed up for Friday – Marilyn and Don Nettles, Rich Malooly, Ted Miller, Don Ruh (!), and Aggie Kee. The only people to sign up for Saturday were Ted Miller and Aggie Kee - we need more people for Saturday! Three volunteers of long standing – Trudy and Bert Brandt and Bob Krantz – will not be participating this year. We're down three! Members, please sign up!

Presenting this morning's program, Tom Marino reviewed the activities of the CalNevHa Foundation:

- Raffle money from DCM goes to Matching Funds on awards.
- Reviewed Dunlap Award.
- Pediatric Trauma Care.
- Aktion Club (members participating in a "sheltered workshop").
- Visit the Foundation website and learn more about "Dee's Champions", the First Lady's project.

We have postponed the Pancake Breakfast for the Mt. SAC Literature Day until next year. The coordinator of this event will be a Friday meeting speaker sometime after May 8.

Sandi Ruh selected a Winning Opportunity for Don Ruh – can you imagine that?! No Joker went to Don, probably in recognition of his remark about Sandi's birthday! Hail, Kiwanis!
