WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Don Ferderer invited Aggie Kee to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance and Wolfgang Shane started us off with our patriotic song. Much to the chagrin of Larry McMillan, we never sounded so sad! Ted Miller offered this morning's invocation.

President Don had no bell to open the meeting. Some dollars could probably have caused the bell to magically appear, but our President did not seem to believe in magic. So the bell is still missing!

Ted introduced Patty Anis and Silvia Bishop of the State of California 48th District Agricultural Association Schools' Agriculture and Nutrition Program. Silvia is today's speaker. Manuel Baca officially greeted Bea McMillan and welcomed her to today's meeting.

Among the late arrivals today were Richard Malooly ($2.00), Kate Hartwig ($1.00), and Manuel ($2.00).

Some of our members had an Interclub this past Wednesday for Hacienda Heights' Special Guest Day that drew 40-50 participants. Don Nettles reported that Don Knabe spoke on various community events, including the new community center in Hacienda Heights and local water rates.

Silvia Bishop encouraged us to visit the Schools' Agriculture and Nutrition Fair (From Seed to Supper) during April 20-24 at the Pomona Fairplex/Building 10. This is an education fair and has neither a livestock competition nor a fairground of its own. Mt. SAC works extremely hard to promote agricultural awareness and its importance to our society. The college and the 48th District Agricultural Association were recently awarded a USDA grant to further their awareness efforts. Mt. SAC and the 48th DAA will co-host a Farm Day to students, parents, and the community on May 1 at the college farm. The Agricultural Sciences Complex at Mt. SAC is scheduled for completion during 2010. Our club donated $200.00 to help defray costs of a bus for students attending the fair. For more information, please visit www.agfair.org.

Following her presentation, Silvia selected a winning opportunity for Wolfgang, but the Joker (the Other Joker) was out of town! Hail, Kiwanis!
