WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Don Ferderer invited Larry McMillan to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance with Richard Malooly guiding us through America The Beautiful. Now there's a song where we seem to do a good job! Don Nettles offered this morning's Invocation. The assembled members did note that President Don had started the meeting without the assistance of his bell and gavel. Don did have possession of a Mt. SAC Relay souvenir bell that was left behind following Doug Todd's visit, but does that make this an official meeting?!

Joining us this morning from Hacienda Heights were Lon Salgren (today's speaker), Kathy Young, and Dave Wallach.

We missed Kate Hartwig's birthday last week, but she bought our silence this week. Thank you, Kate, for the donation to our treasury! Speaking of donations to the treasury, Richard led us back to the subject of President Don's missing bell and gavel. Although Don expressed a real sense of freedom not having to tote around the heavy bell, Richard decided to head a panel discussion on the value of the bell and gavel and the price that one should pay for its return. Add to that the fact that President Don was not even wearing his Kiwanis badge (Who dressed him this morning?!), the dollars started mounting! Richard was ready to accept a $25.00 fine from Don when Aggie Kee mentioned that a great deal of security was probably involved in watching over the bell and gavel while they were not in the possession of our leader. And everyone knows that good security is a pricey item! So Don pulled another $25.00 from his wallet and for the grand total of $50.00 he regained possession of the missing items. And could you believe that they were returned to him in bag with "JUSTICE" imprinted on the sides?? (We would like to thank Kate, Aggie, and Richard for taking advantages of the opportunities to do some in-house fund-raising! We called it fund-raising – Don was overheard mumbling something about "Extortion"!)

Don't forget the opportunities to chaperone Key Club events this weekend -
