WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Presiding President Ted Miller welcomed members Don Nettles, Rich Malooly, Larry McMillan, and Aggie Kee to this morning’s meeting. Ted led us in our Pledge of Allegiance with Don Nettles guiding us through our patriotic song and offering today’s invocation.

Guests joining us today were Dave Wallach of Hacienda Heights Kiwanis and Debbie Deal of the Glendora Kiwanians accompanied by her husband Stan. Debbie will serve as Division 35 Lt.-Governor for 2010-2011. Ted invited Larry to introduce our guests, but Larry declined as he was suffering from CRS this morning – Can’t Remember Stuff! Ted graciously filled in for Larry!!

Aggie reported on a very successful Pancake Breakfast donated to the Diamond Bar Relay for Life. Long-time members felt that we served more pancakes on Saturday morning, June 12, than we ever have as a fund-raiser. All of us can congratulate each other for the efforts of those members who cheerfully carried, cooked, shopped, stored, delivered, unpacked, sorted, served, cleaned up, organized, and the list goes on. As a Sponsor of the Relay, we had our names imprinted on the Relay tee shirts. We have a Large and an Extra Large that we will be offering as Opportunities. Natasha and Calvin of Mt. SAC Circle K joined us and worked at the Registration Booth. Denise Mesdjian, faculty co-advisor of the Diamond Bar High School Key Club, was also out with some students. Since our grills were going to be out overnight, Relay staffers used them again at lunch time to grill hamburgers and hot dogs. Those grills have never gone “home” so clean!

Debbie Deal will be attending International and Cal-Nev-Ha conventions in preparation for her upcoming term as Lt.-Governor. Bert Brandt of our club will continue to write the Division 35 Newsletter during Debbie’s administration.

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Aggie had sent out earlier this week an e-mail regarding the LeRoy Haynes Center KaBoom! Playground Build Day on July 9, 2010. So far Ted, Richard, and Aggie are planning on attending and Manuel will be there if he can arrange his schedule for a trip that weekend.

Walnut Relay for Life is June 26 at Mt. SAC track – stop by if you can!

Dave Wallach advised that Mimi's on Gale closed down and their club is busy trying to find a new location. They should decide by Monday whether the meeting will be held at Casa Blanca or the local IHOP. The annual Independence Day parade will be held on July 5 starting at 8:00 a.m. – Never on Sunday!

Kate Hartwig was not able to attend our meeting this morning so we did not have any Opportunities available for Joker hunting! --- Hail, Kiwanis!
