WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Members gathering for this morning's meeting were Ray McMullen, "Incoming President" Richard Malooly, Larry McMillan, Kate Hartwig, and Aggie Kee. Sal Del Campo Martin joined us as a guest of Richard. President Don Ferderer is out of town and all of us "filled in".

We were expecting a prospective member this morning who has already ruined his perfect attendance by not showing up!

Some ideas that we tossed around to get us going on projects and fundraisers included:

- ⇒ Rich has been thinking about a project where the Key Club members could work with Parks and Recreation to clean up Sycamore Canyon Park. A concern here is exposure to Poison Oak.
- ⇒ Aggie suggested contacting Linda Pena, a school teacher at Roosevelt Elementary in Pomona. We have known Linda through our food distribution at Christmas time and she may have ideas on how we can help some students and their families.
- ⇒ Aggie suggested perhaps we could work on a project with the Diamond Bar Library during their move to the new City Hall facility.
- ⇒ Ray touted Don Ruh's suggestion on approaching parents of Key Club members at Diamond Bar, Rowland, and Walnut High Schools.
- ⇒ Rich discussed a possible joint meeting with the Diamond Bar Lions Club and sharing ideas on how to promote volunteerism in the surrounding area.

Hail, Kiwanis!
