WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

First Lady Mary and President Don Ferderer greeted Richard Malooly, Larry McMillan, Ted Miller, Don Nettles, Trudy and Bert Brandt, Kate Hartwig, and Aggie Kee to this morning's meeting. Larry led us in our Pledge of Allegiance. Aggie was way, way off key in leading our patriotic song so Don Nettles jumped in with an assist. Ted offered today's invocation.

Don presented a special certificate to Ted for recognition as a Sustaining Member of the Kiwanis International Foundation. Congratulations, Ted!

Sign-up sheets were circulated for our club Installation, the Lt.-Governor Installation, and our Rotating Presidency for 2010-2011.

Kate, trying to get an early start on tickets for our Opportunity Drawing, incurred a fine for interrupting our President while he was speaking. Kate rolled it all together with her fine for being late!

President Don donated $37.00 in acknowledgement of his and Mary's recent wedding anniversary.

Late payments are coming in for the golf tournament and final checks will be issued for both the Boosters and Kiwanis. It's been a long struggle for Kate to get these issues finalized and all should congratulate her for her persistence.

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Trudy announced that she recently talked with Octavio Figueroa and he may be joining us for Installation on October 1.

We had a general review of our Budget 2010-2011:

- We will hold the target number at 100 for our Christmas food distribution this year.
- Chickens will be distributed rather than turkeys.
- We will cut our Diamond Bar Relay for Life sponsorship to $500.00 and again donate the breakfast on Saturday morning.
- We will cut our Isaiah’s Rock Christmas donation to $500.00.
- We will cut Chapman scholarships to $300.00 for eight students.

The winning opportunity was selected for Mary and SHE FOUND THE JOKER! Mary kindly returned the proceeds to our treasury. --- Hail, Kiwanis!
