WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

President Richard Malooly invited Larry McMillan to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance; Don Ruh, our patriotic song; and Aggie Kee, this morning's invocation. Other members in attendance were Kate Hartwig and Ray McMullen. Julie McCasland, Children's Librarian at the Diamond Bar Library, joined us as our guest speaker today.

Following breakfast, Julie reviewed library activities. This is Julie's sixth year at the Diamond Bar Library and they had great success with their summer programs – 150 adults, 100 teens, and 700 young children. Besides reading programs, the summer months were spent with movies, popcorn and juice, a magician, and the balloon lady.

Rich, Aggie, and Trudy and Bert Brandt with attend Lt.-Governor Debbie Deal's Installation Dinner tomorrow night at the Glendora Country Club. Debbie is a member of the extremely active Glendora Kiwaniannes so hang on for the overflow of energy into Division activities!

The winning opportunity was selected for Richard and guess what – The Joker! Richard donated the tidy sum of six dollars to our treasury!

--- Hail, Kiwanis!
