

WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

January President Aggie Kee invited Ray McMullen to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance with Don Ferderer conducting our patriotic song. Larry McMillan offered this morning's invocation. Ralph Mendez visited today to make sure that Aggie was really where she said she was! Late arrivals Don Nettles and Richard Malooly were duly fined for not arriving in time for opening ceremonies.

Richard reviewed our needs for cooking Corn on a Stick at the Diamond Bar Winterfest on January 15 – two-burner stoves, pots, napkins, plastic gloves, trash bags, Tabasco, and Diamond Bar High School Key Club members. The Key Club will provide four shifts of five members and are willing to help in other areas should we be overrun with manpower in our booth.

To obtain additional monies for our treasury, fines were assessed on those members who were not wearing their badges.

Corrine Cardiel attended our Board Meeting on Wednesday evening as the Booster Club coordinator for our joint golf tournament. Trudy Brandt will contact Octavio Figueroa to obtain all the printing files and Bert Brandt will work with Corinne on getting the initial "Save the Date" letter out the door as quickly as possible.

As discussed at the Board Meeting, it is not too early to be contemplating what responsibilities each of us is willing to assume for the Kiwanis year 2011-2012. May elections will be here before we know it. We already greatly appreciate that Don Nettles has stepped forward as a nomination for President for next year. All members should be considering other positions to be filled – Treasurer, President Elect, Board Members, and Secretary. Who would like to be Bulletin Writer?!

Trudy and Bert will contact the bank concerning signature authorizations and combining accounts for both our club and the special account for our golf tournament.

Approval of the Treasurer's Report was delayed from Wednesday until this morning, but we are not in a position to review and discuss again this morning. Report approval is once again postponed to our meeting on Friday, January 14.

Trudy recently talked with Bob Krantz and he sends greetings to all of us. *** Ray, Don Nettles, and Richard visited the Rose Float site on the morning of January 1 to get a first-hand view of the floats before they started down Colorado Boulevard – and they had the opportunity to shake hands with the Kiwanis International President! So it's true – the early Kiwanian catches...

We again discussed the garage sale and decided that we should hold it to one day – Saturday, February 26. Start cleaning out those garages, attics, and packed closets!

DCM will be held on Thursday, January 13, and will be attended by Richard, Don Nettles, Trudy and Bert.

We are planning an Interclub with Hacienda Heights at Casa Blanca on Wednesday, January 19, at 6:00 p.m. – 15922 Gale Avenue, Hacienda Heights 91745, (626)330-9549.

Richard reminded us of our traditional holiday obligations and we gave a gift of $50.00 to our waitress at Millie's.

A winning opportunity was selected for Bert, but No Joker.

Hail, Kiwanis!
