WALNUT VALLEY KIWANIS CLUB

Last-Meeting-for-January President Aggie Kee invited Richard Malooly to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance, a tribute to his outstanding effort to avoid a fine by arriving on time for this morning's meeting. Larry McMillan encouraged us through our patriotic song and Bert Brandt offered today's invocation. Our guests included Brad Manning, Denise Patton, and Pat Silva of the West Covina club; Paul White and Vern Moyer, La Puente-Industry club. Trudy Brandt fined herself one dollar for not being able to introduce Pat.

Aggie opened the meeting with a correction to last week's bulletin. Relay for Life nationally collect $330 million last year, not $330 thousand. Please remember that there is a kickoff event tomorrow at Acapulco Restaurant from 6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m. – food, fun, and karaoke. All day long Acapulco will donate 25% of your bill with the presentation of a fundraiser coupon. Flyers with coupons were distributed again this morning for those who did not pick up one last week. Committee Meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. at Golden Springs Elementary School.

We are confirmed on the site (Remax parking lot on Golden Springs) and will discuss the sale in more detail at our Board Meeting on Wednesday, February 2. The date is Saturday, February 26. Empty your drawers, garages, cabinets and come on down!

on Monday concerning our on April 16. We don't know what on your calendars! April will be Puttin' on the Hits and Mt. SAC

No fines for being late today and no fines for not wearing badges today, BUT...again the matter of not reading the bulletin. The official greeting today for the outgoing President of the Month was, "Glad you're gone! Don Nettles will make a great president!" Amid the excuses, reasons, explanations, and justifications for not doing so, fines of two dollars per person were collected. Accolades...Don Ferderer was the only one to say it correctly immediately upon arrival!

Ray McMullen picked up 140 returned golf tournament Save the Date! mailings from the Post Office this week. Rich will discuss this at the upcoming tournament meeting. The trifold application is in the works and we have received three donations to date.

Bert Brandt reminded us to register for Mid-Winter Conference if we are planning to go. The La Puente-Industry club will receive recognition in the Small Club Category for their Interclub success.

Memorial services for Dora of the La Puente-Industry club were held yesterday and Paul shared some memories of their beloved member. La Puente-Industry will hold a St. Valentine Bowl-a-Thon on February 15 at the West Covina Lanes at 6:00 p.m. Registration fee for a team of six is $65.; single, $12. Donation to the fundraiser will be $0.75 per pin.

The West Covina club recently chartered a new Key Club and worked on a government program on counting homeless people.

Brad Manning shared information on a Texas Hold 'Em proposal outlining a joint venture between our clubs with both clubs sharing in the profits.

Handouts of this proposal were distributed to all members and will be discussed further at our Board Meeting on February 2. (Manuel, you ARE invited to attend the Board Meeting to get first-hand information on both the Flea Market and Texas Hold 'Em!)

A winning opportunity was selected for Vern Moyer, but the Joker was out running around with Don Nettles and Manuel Baca! Hail, Kiwanis!
