President-for-February Don Nettles accompanied First-Lady-for-February Marilyn Nettles to this morning's meeting and even offered to buy her breakfast! Don invited Ray McMullen to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance and Larry McMillan once again tried to guide us through our patriotic song. We apologize, Larry, for rendering a less-than-stellar performance today. Let this not be a reflection on your own abilities. Guest Ted Miller offered this morning's invocation. Rich Malooly was our only late arrival today and paid one dollar

President Don offered program called Prophets of Doom as the greatest concerns by an encore presentation covering:

himself up as today's speaker and reviewed a Doom that was broadcast on the History channel the other night. Don highlighted the major factors identified a panel of experts. Watch your TV guide for

- Water: Thirty-six states are in a shortage.
- Oil: World production will peak in 2030.
- Food: Most food travels 1,500 miles from harvest to table. We need to rebuild railroads and grow our own food.
- Commerce: "Rule of Law" in banking system.
- Terrorism: Nuclear bombs.
- Engineering and Invention: Robotic industry is a trillion dollar business and we will be fighting wars with robots.

Most Important: Water and Economic Stability

We will be selling Saturday, April 16. other vendors. We will deliveries to the park throughout the day. The Lions Club sold pizza at past events and Rich will contact Jack Tanaka for some helpful hints.

PIZZA at the Diamond Bar Birthday Party on Everything – including elote – was taken by work out the logistics of having random pizza Southern California Edison will be working Thursday evening and they may or may not Friday. Being the troopers that we are, we up for the meeting as usual. We'll go with the flow.
