KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President-of-the-Month Larry McMillan enlisted Don Nettles for double service this week: leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance and offering today's Invocation. We all joined in mutual support of one another through our patriotic song. Guests Ralph Mendez, Leslie and Enrique Sanquil, and former First Lady Mary Ferderer contributed to the musical effort and no one left the building.

Now, this is what Kiwanis is all about: Be Prepared. Oh, sorry, that's the Boy Scouts! So is this our Boy Scout?? Rich Malooly came prepared for all imaginable fines. Rich was wearing everything except the high heels! So Larry decided that he would not fine anyone this morning!

But the Treasury did not suffer. Bea and Larry contributed $55.00 in celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary. In celebration of their 58th wedding anniversary, Nancy and Ray McMullen made a donation of $116.00. We extend our best wishes to both families with warmest wishes for many more celebrations to come.

Ray has really spearheaded the project for the joint Texas Hold 'Em with West Covina on October 15. Today Ray circulated a schedule to sign up for participating in Interclubs to promote the festivities. Everyone should review the dates and we can discuss them at next week's meeting. For a club our size, two people are required to qualify as an Interclub. All of us need to start soliciting prizes, donations, gift baskets, and pushing advance ticket sales. Five tickets each were distributed to members today. Ray will contact Denise Patton to review food donations and Rich will cover the "poker playing aspects"! We decided to forego the option of an additional activity, mostly because of necessary "person" power.

Don Nettles and Aggie Kee will get together this week to coordinate plans for our Installation to be held at breakfast on September 23.  Don reported on his recent trip to BYU where along with 10,000 other people he enjoyed 1,000 class options for his week of study.

Larry acknowledged Trudy and Bert Brandt for their years of participation in the club. Best wishes for your new life in Florida!!

KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

Key Club Division 35 East held their DCM at Kuns Park in Laverne last Saturday. Aggie, Richard, and Leslie and Enrique Sanquil attended on our club's behalf and enjoyed the meeting and the pie-in-the-face activities that followed.

So this is how the Opportunity drawing went today. Don Nettles, having no interest in the outcome, was chosen as the person to select the Opportunity. Ray told Don to select "359". So as it would go, Don selected "359"! Ray surveyed his choices and asked Aggie, "Is this the one?" Aggie said, "Yes." And it was the one! The Joker was found, worth $40.00 this morning!! -- Hail, Kiwanis!
