KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President-of-Record and President-of-the-Month Richard Malooly was bright and early and invited Larry McMillan to lead us in our Pledge of Allegiance. Brad Manning of the West Covina club joined us this morning and guided us through God Bless America. Don Nettles offered this morning's invocation. Leslie Sanqui joined us today as our guest. And you wonder why we did not mention Enrique as our guest today? Because at the Board Meeting on Wednesday evening we accepted the applications of two new members...Enrique Sanqui and Ralph Mendez. Yes, at long last, Ralph is official!!

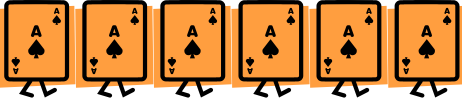

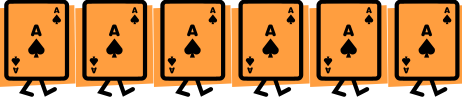

Richard reported 'Em. The Interclub postponed until a September 11 Council. Ray and that responses have been slow for prizes for the Texas Hold planned for September 13 with La Puente-Industry has been September 20. La Puente-Industry members were attending memorial sponsored by the Industry Manufacturers' Don Nettles went to South Hills and they had gone dark this week and next week. Brad worked with Ray through the process for applying for an ABC license and Conditional Use Permit. Richard suggested an "upgrade" on the food. Brad along with Denise Patton will work on sodas and water and may be able to get some donations. We encourage everyone to again donate beer and wine as we did for the first tournament. We have three gift baskets in the works and there were additional gift donations in the mail that Ray McMullen brought with him today. Be sure to check the schedule below for your scheduled visit to promote our tournament.

We did receive the $1,500.00 donation from Supervisor Knabe's office towards our golf tournament held with the Sheriffs Boosters in May.

Don Nettles tried to get Leslie to select the Winning Opportunity, but when she declined, Don selected the Opportunity himself...and selected Leslie! The Joker stayed out of the frivolity and remained hidden for the week. Hail, Kiwanis!
