KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President-Elect Don Nettles presided over this morning's meeting. Members Don Nettles, Enrique Salazar, Ray McMullen, Richard Malooly, Aggie Kee, Larry McMillan joined in the Pledge of Allegiance and Ray McMullen led us in our patriotic song. Don Nettles offered today's invocation. Paul White and Vern Moyer joined us from the La Puente-Industry club. This visit was the 169th Interclub for La Puente-Industry. Co-Presidents Tina Fane and Pedro Montenegro joined us from Mt. SAC Circle K.

Richard accused reminding Don and today is the gavel for the proceed with the Breakfast, Don to attend the meetings. We President Nettles of a Renegade Presidency, that his presidency did not start until October 1 September 30. As Don was ready to relinquish day, Richard danced backwards a la Michael Jackson and let Don meeting. Since Ralph Mendez did not make it to the Installation questioned when we would induct him. Ralph indicated that he would like Board Meetings since he will not be able to make many of the Friday agreed that Don could induct him at the next Board Meeting.

The Texas Hold 'Em is two weeks from tomorrow. We are still waiting for the gambling license and prizes continue to arrive. We do need donations of beer and wine. Marilyn and Don Nettles will sponsor the hot dogs/buns/condiments. Foot-long sandwiches will also be available along with sodas and water. Mary Ferderer and Gloria Baca are creating beautiful gift baskets for the winners. Ray will not arrive until close to 5 o'clock that day, but Mike McMullen will be there in the afternoon to fill in for Ray.

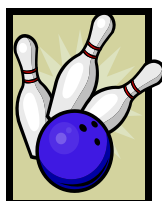

Even though all numbers have not been finalized, we did review the proposed Budget 2011-2012.

Pedro Montenegro, co-President of Mt. SAC Circle K, reported that their meeting went well this past Wednesday and that they will meet every other Wednesday. Ray attended the meeting representing our Club. Some of their projects include collecting clothing for the Salvation Army and canned goods for the Walnut Food Bank.

We briefly touched on the subject of filing for 501C3 and Paul White suggested that we contact Mike Ito of the Hacienda Heights club.

Aggie solicited participation for Tree Lanes tomorrow from week. Aggie plans on being Circle K will be working with clean-up crew at the alley the Special Olympics Bowling Tournament to be held at Oak 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. The late notice was received just this there and Richard will be there from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. Habitat for Humanity tomorrow, but they may be able to have a around 3:00.
