

KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

With First Lady Marilyn and President Don Nettles still vacationing, Aggie Kee once again conducted our meeting. Welcomed members included Ray McMullen, Larry McMillan, Don Ferderer, Richard Malooly, and Enrique Sanqui. Since only six members were at today's meeting, Aggie felt it was unfair to fine those who were late – at least they were there! Guest Leslie Sanqui was not so understanding. She herself fined husband Enrique one dollar for being late! Other guests this morning included our speaker Jane Woods from Leroy Haynes Center; Pat Silva, Denise Patton, and Brad Manning from West Covina; Vern Moyer and Paul White from LaPuente-Industry; and Pedro Montenegro, Mt. SAC Circle K. Richard arrived decked out in every imaginable fineable item. Since he was so well prepared, no fines were assessed for anything today – other than Leslie's!

Don Ferderer led us in our Pledge of Allegiance and Ray McMullen guided us through our patriotic song. Guest Paul White offered this morning's invocation.

Information to share from last night's DCM:

- Pencil in April 14 and 21, 2012, for our next joint Poker Tournament with West Covina. Will advise.
- December 30: International President's Interclub Luncheon; $45.00 per seat
- January 2, 2012: Rose Parade (Never on Sunday)
- Our float needs five riders. Contact Dave Wallach if you are interested.
- March 18, 2012: Governor's Visit

Pedro Montenegro, Mt. SAC Circle K Co-President, announced that they recently held a very unorganized Bake Sale, but to his amazement they made $100.00. They are continuing their clothing drive and are currently collecting canned food. Their meeting schedule is suspended until the second week of March 2012.

Paul White reviewed LaPuente-Industry's Holiday Shopping Spree. Tickets are available for $5.00 each.

Denise Patton reviewed West Covina's holiday projects and Brad Manning reviewed the Division 35 project for next year – March 8, 2012, packing supplies for our troops.

Don Nettles will be back in town as of Monday midnight so check your emails and telephones for updated messages on our plans for the food distribution on Saturday, December 17.

The Diamond Bar High School Key Club held their General Meeting on Monday, December 5, in the Golden Horseshoe at 12:16 p.m. Please thank Ray for representing us at this event.

Division 35 Lt.-Governor Lon Salgren will make his official club visit on Friday, December 16. All members are encouraged to be present to hear Lon's plans for the division this year.

Jane Woods reviewed the current activities at the Leroy Haynes Center and we presented her with $285.00 worth of assorted gift cards for distribution to residents during the holiday season.

Both LaPuente-Industry and West Covina extended invitations to Jane to speak to their clubs during the month of January 2012. We planted a seed!
