

KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President Don Nettles welcomed members Don Ferderer, Richard Malooly, Ray McMullen, Larry McMillan, and Aggie Kee to this morning's meeting. President Don led us in our Pledge of Allegiance; guest Dave Wallach, our patriotic song; and Don Ferderer offered today's invocation. Aggie introduced Vern Moyer from La Puente-Industry; Yvette Mack, Kathy Young, Izzledean Osman, Dave Wallach, and Division 35 Lt.-Governor Lon Salgren from Hacienda Heights. Yvette joined us this morning to speak on the ELIMINATE project and brought her entourage!

We reviewed activities surrounding our food distribution last week and we all agree that it was a great venue at Walnut High. Appreciation is extended to all members who participated through donations and service time. Turkeys cost less, potatoes cost more, and we all donated one dollar towards expenses on the project. Don Nettles suggested that representatives from the two major recipients – groups at St. Denis in Diamond Bar and the Mormon Church in La Puente – speak to us at future meetings to tell us about their experiences with our program.

Larry donated $20.00 for not bringing the Opportunity We did much better this way!!

tickets this morning. Thank you, Larry!

Yvette Mack presented a movie on the ELIMINATE project cosponsored by Kiwanis and UNICEF in an effort to eradicate maternal/neonatal tetanus throughout the world. There was a great article in a recent Kiwanis magazine – catch up with it if you have not read it. Division 35 is far beyond other Southern California divisions for promotion of this program. Internationally we hope to raise 110 million dollars by 2015. Yvette distributed brochures outlining the donation methods available and gave everyone wrist bands to wear to create awareness of our goals. We can earn a banner patch for a donation of $750. Don Nettles questioned how UNICEF distributes the money to the project and Yvette will report back to us on that inquiry.

We received a letter and donation from Frank Baker. Great to hear from you, Frank! Hail, Kiwanis!
