KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President Don Nettles welcomed members Larry McMillan, Don Ferderer, Richard Malooly, and Aggie Kee along with Jim Bealka, Richard's brother-in-law. Richard led us in the Pledge of Allegiance while President Don guided us through our patriotic song. Don Ferderer offered today's invocation.

WE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR COLLECTING
BODY LOTION, DENTAL FLOSS, AND FOOT POWDER
FOR OUR PACKING FOR THE TROOPS ON MARCH 8, 2012.

The Club Assessment was not completed today as programmed. Our January Board Meeting will be postponed until Wednesday, January 11, 2012, at 6:30 p.m. at the Remax office.

President Don invited Bishop Lorenzo Hinojosa of the Latter Day Saints in La Puente to join us at next week's meeting. Bishop Hinojosa will review for us the church's participation in our food distribution program. Hacienda Heights Kiwanian Mamood Bashir will also present information on the Key Leader Program.

Richard paid a birthday fine of $20.00 and Larry contributed $20.00 in recognition of Bea's birthday celebration. Congratulations to all!

Mary and Don Ferderer participated in the Rose Float feeding on December 28. Don said there were about 400 people enjoying the meal provided by Casa Blanca.

Richard and Becky and Aggie volunteered at Isaiah's Rock on Christmas Eve Day for their toy and food distribution. What an incredible experience! Once you have been there, you will be back every year. One of the King family members spoke to Aggie in deep appreciation of all the work that the Key Clubs do for them – from toys to food to computer programming. She commented that whoever hooked Key Club up with Isaiah's had done a wonderful thing. We are all pretty sure that those kudos go to Richard and we offered a round of applause for our own appreciation of his efforts.

A winning opportunity was selected for Don Ferderer, but the Joker was off having breakfast with Mary! Hail, Kiwanis!
