KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President Don Nettles invited Aggie Kee to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Don Ferderer offered today's invocation. Other members with us this morning were Ray McMullen, Manuel Baca, Enrique Sanqui, and Richard Malooly, along with guest and speaker Ron Everett of Diamond Bar City Council.

Packing for the troops last evening was a great success. Thank you to all of our members who were able to participate – Marilyn and Don, Mary and Don, Nancy and Ray, Richard, Aggie, and Gloria. What a well-coordinated effort can achieve! We thought we would be there until nine o'clock and out we strolled at 7:30 p.m. – fed and packed! And another wonderful representation from our Key Clubs and Mt. SAC Circle K.

Packages will be forwarded to Navy personnel serving in Afghanistan in honor of Governor Olmstead, retired career Navy. Our own President Don was included along with other Kiwanians joining Governor Olmstead for accolades and photo opportunities! Don mentioned that he was on a Fletcher Class Destroyer and told us this morning that someone else at the packing had been on the same kind of vessel. Sad to say Don's ship sank on its way to decommissioning.

IMPORTANT! IMPORTANT! IMPORTANT!

Please plan ahead. The events will be here before we know it.

WE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR DOOR PRIZES FOR:

April 14: Texas Hold 'Em (Not baskets, simply door prizes)

May 7: Kiwanis-Sheriff Boosters Golf Tournament

Ray and President Don attended the Diamond Bar High School General Meeting at noon on Monday, March 5. The new administration for 2012-2013 were introduced.

We will attend Puttin' on the Hits tonight with our own Manuel Baca portraying Trini Lopez. Since it's a work day, we'll forego dinner this year. The performance begins at 7:30.

At the Board Meeting on Wednesday night, we approved $125.00 each for three Key Club members from Diamond Bar High School to attend the Key Leader training in May.

Diamond Bar High School Key Club will share in the proceeds from tomorrow night's Bingo. Reminders to those who signed up – President Don, Don and Mary, Richard, and Aggie: We are expected to be there from 4-11:00 p.m.
