KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President Don Nettles welcomed members Ray McMullen, Richard Malooly, Aggie Kee, Don Ferderer, Manuel Baca, and Enrique Sanqui to this morning's meeting with Richard leading our Pledge of Allegiance and Don Ferderer offering the Kiwanis invocation. Guests joining us today were Vern Moyer and Paul White of La Puente-Industry club and Jasmine and Carol from Diamond Bar High School Key Club.

President Don, Aggie, and Richard attended DCM last night. The evening was hosted by the Monrovia club and included a wonderful photographic tribute to Don Yost. Key Club Lt.-Governor Lenny Luc will host the Key Club Division 35 East Officers Training tomorrow at 1:00 p.m. at Diamond Bar Friends Church and President Don and Aggie are planning on attending.

Region 13 Key Clubs will host their picnic on Saturday, June 23, at Butterfield Park in Walnut from 11:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Chaperones are required. Please let Aggie know if you will be able to attend this event. Butterfield Park is located at 19370 Camino Arroyo, west of Lemon on La Puente Road.

The ELIMINATE can was circulated among the group. Funds will be presented to Yvette Mack monthly at the DCM. Richard, don't forget to decorate the can so that we can be competitive at the July DCM. We're the hosts so we need to have a good can!

President Don felt compelled to share with us the fact that there is a local business that performs body scans for the purpose of determining correct clothing sizes! You can judge for yourself!

Ray updated us on the Texas Hold 'Em that is now scheduled for Saturday, October 6. Please put this on your calendar right away because we need all hands on deck. We are considering adding Bunco to make the evening a family affair. Anyone with knowledge of Bunco guidelines, please give us a call. We need prizes, we need players. We are currently working on a mailing list and Richard is working on recruiting a new Bubba.

IF YOU CAN'T THINK OF ANY OTHER REASON TO ATTEND THIS EVENT, CONSIDER THIS...RAY MCMULLEN WILL CELEBRATE TURNING 80 ON OCTOBER 6.

In the spirit of Happy Dollars, granddaughter being named

Richard donated $7.00 in celebration of his student of the month at her school.

Vern Moyer is President of the La Puente-Industry club and the Division 35 chairperson for the Kiwanis Program Read Around The World. As we did for a couple of years, Vern's club presents a book to their speakers. They then have the speaker sign the book and the to a local library. The aim of this making people literate around the people acquire the skill to read, book is donated program is world, helping giving support to many ways: America is people learning to read. Distribution of books can be handled in schools, libraries, reading programs. During March Read Across celebrated – people from the community read to classes at a school. The website for Kiwanis International offers many suggestions on implementing this program.

Jasmine Ting selected a winning opportunity for Paul White, and Paul found the Joker today. The opportunity was worth $50.00 of which Paul donated $25.00 back to our ELIMINATE can. Hail, Kiwanis!
