KIWANIS CLUB OF WALNUT VALLEY

---Serving the communities of Diamond Bar, Rowland Heights, and Walnut

President Don Nettles welcomed members Don Ruh, Don Ferderer, Ray McMullen, Larry McMillan, Aggie Kee, and Enrique Salazar. Special Guests today included Sandi Ruh and Bea McMillan. Visitors from Diamond Bar High School Key Club included Jane, K Family Chair; Connie, Publicist; and Dana, Technology. (A special thank you again to DBHSC officers who joined us throughout the summer. We'll miss you!)

President Don started off the Happy Dollar contributions in celebration of daughter Melanie's participation in building the solar panels for the Mars space program. Bea contributed one Happy Dollar in recognition of son Bill and grandson visiting Peru to participate in building a basketball court. Ray contributed two Sad Dollars because he bought a birthday card for Don Ruh and never mailed it! Don Ruh donated $80.00, one dollar for each year of celebration!

Today's program involved members reminiscing about the younger days, the jogging days, the days of the Morning Glories – aptly named because they were up in the morning and folded up at night!

WE ARE THE GREEN HORNETS!

Key Club member Dana selected a winning opportunity for Sandi Ruh, but no Joker was around! Recipients of the Ruh Prizes were Ray, Bea, and Connie. Connie rang our bell to close the meeting. Hail, Kiwanis!
