President Don Nettles welcomed members Ralph Mendez, Ray McMullen, Larry McMillan, Aggie Kee, and Richard Malooly to this morning's meeting with Aggie leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance and Don offering today's Invocation.

Our sole guest today was our speaker Principal Jeff Jordan of Walnut High School.

Don reviewed a letter that we received from the Learning Centers at the Fairplex thanking us for our participation in the Big Yellow Bus Program, transporting local school students to the Los Angeles County Fair.

Don and Aggie chaperoned Key Club members from Diamond Bar and Walnut High Schools at Magic Mountain last Saturday. Bus service this year was a great source of entertainment – one bus broke down in the Pasadena area and all riders were transferred to another bus and the driver of another bus was stopped by the Highway Patrol and ticketed for not wearing her seat belt. Who says bus trips are boring?!

The Spirit Rally rocked the arena as usual and everyone had a wonderful time. Lots of Spirit, Noise, Key Club members...and Cold Weather!

There will not be an official meeting on Thanksgiving Friday, but those of us who are available will meet at Bob's for breakfast as usual.

December 21 is the last day of school for the Walnut Valley District and Jeff Jordan, Jerry Knox, and Don Nettles will coordinate dates for sorting and packing at Walnut High School for our Holiday Food Distribution to be held on Saturday, December 22.

Ray will advertise the Yard Sale in the Penny Saver and Richard will see that it gets onto Craig's List.

We extend a special thank-you to Don and Richard who will be spending some time chaperoning the Kiwins event tomorrow at AQMD.

We received a letter from Lt.-Governor Brad Manning asking us to select a date for his official visit to our Friday meeting. This visit needs to be completed by February.

Aggie apologized for neglecting to list Marc Ruh as a guest at last week's meeting.
