Today's Meeting Highlights...

Lindy Chen from Walnut High School Key Club requested financial assistance to attend the Key Leader Weekend at Cedar Glen the weekend of October 21. We will contribute $100.00 to Lindy to participate in this event. Lindy has been invited to give a presentation to us during Christmas break on her experiences at the event.

Dates for our Holiday Food Distribution have been confirmed. On December 16 the cans will be sorted and the distribution will be held on Saturday, December 17, at Walnut High School stadium.

A decision was delayed on whether to use the Diamond Bar Foundation Windmill website for promoting membership until all members have had a chance to view the website and review the contents...Richard will contact Andee Tarazon regarding an application for the Diamond Bar Winterfest....Aggie circulated a Membership Directory for updating addresses, phone numbers, etc...The weekly Service Log was circulated for updating any hours served since our last meeting...A winning opportunity was selected for Bea, but the Joker was out of town. Bea donated one dollar to the PTP can...Hail, Kiwanis!

Speaker's Highlights...

Vern Moyer of the West Covina Club is the Division 35 Chairperson for our Read Around the World program that provides new and used books to schools and reading rooms. Reading is one of our most important abilities and the earlier our children start the better. Our division donated 1,000 books in one year. The Monrovia/Duarte Reading Rooms can use both children's and adult books; please consider them when you're cleaning out your closets.
