Today's Meeting Highlights...

Aggie reminded Board Members of our meeting on December 7 at Ray's home. The minutes from last month's meeting and the agenda for the upcoming meeting will be out early next week. Details for the upcoming food distribution were reviewed and will be updated again at the Board Meeting. Ray announced that the Walnut Valley School District will be donating some gift cards for the project. We do not yet have any news on the Diamond Bar Winterfest to be held in January 2017. Ralph and Aggie will attend the General Meeting of the Diamond Bar High School Key Club on Monday, December 5, at 12:15 p.m. A winning opportunity was selected for Richard, but there was no Joker available!  Hail, Kiwanis!

Today's Speaker Highlights...

Jane Woods presented current news from the center: Now a statewide facility---Exclusive providers for the LA World Airports---Autism Center is now known as Bliss Academy (one-on-one student/aide)---Emotional Disturbances & Learning Disabilities now known as Renaissance Community (preparing to move offsite for more of a "high school" atmosphere---Working with businesses in the community to develop working skills for residents---$24 million annual budget with State support and 10% through fundraising---Transitional housing no longer funded by State---Through the donations of our members, we presented almost $500.00 in gift cards for the annual Christmas party to be held next week. "God Bless Us, Everyone!"
