Meeting Highlights...

Ray reviewed highlights of the DCM last night: Sand brought back from Normandy...Key Leader Program (two sites have been shut down from fires).

Walnut High School Key Club will hold their Rush in September. They usually have approximately 500 members with a Cabinet of 32. Catherine Cao explained how their Cabinet system works and that you have to have been a Cabinet leader before you can become an officer. A Yogurt Fundraiser will be held today and they conducted an Adopt-A-Highway event on August 5.

Diamond Bar High School Key Club are planning their membership drive; they are averaging around 200 members.

Dick Clippinger explained A Brush With Kindness and Catherine told us about her work with Rustic Pathways in Thailand this summer.

Dick gave us all the opportunity to carry off the orchid plant that he won at last night's DCM. Ray contributed $7.00 to our Treasury and bought an orchid for himself!

A winning opportunity was selected for Ray, but there was not a Joker for him this week! One dollar was donated to the PTP can. *** Hail, Kiwanis!
