Meeting Highlights...

The meeting started out with a return to the Happy Dollars program:

* Ray, hoping that his granddaughter repays his loan today!

 Richard, August is over!

 Dick, thank you from A Brush With Kindness!

 Matt, to be alive!

Richard, Salvador, Matt, and Aggie related their experiences at the project for A Brush With Kindness last Saturday. (See photos from last week's bulletin.) Dick was very appreciative of the work that we did and hopes that all members will come out in the future. There will be another project tomorrow on Ninth St. in Pomona.

We have distributed information to both of our Key Clubs and hope to also have their participation on future projects.

President-of-the-Month Salvador Del Campo presents our donation to Kathleen Newe.

Kathleen Newe visited our meeting this morning to accept our donation of $250.00 to the Big Yellow Bus program. This money goes directly to students in Diamond Bar to enable them to take a field trip to the Los Angeles County Fair. The Fair offers many educational opportunities for students and provides an introduction to interests to which they might not otherwise be exposed.

Diamond Bar Day at the Fair is Thursday, September 14.

Mike McMullen recently went to Baja and visited with the Old Men. Mike extends his appreciation to those members who contributed towards his efforts to assist the gentlemen who live at this facility.

Richard, Dick, Ray, and possibly Manuel will join the Duarte club for an Interclub on Tuesday, September 5, at Westminster Gardens. A guest speaker from Honor Flight will provide a presentation on their goals to provide no-charge transportation to our veterans to visit our nation's war memorials. -- A winning opportunity was selected for Ray AGAIN!, but he could not find the Joker. -- Hail, Kiwanis!
