Meeting Highlights...

Ray reviewed all activities for our food distribution tomorrow at the Stadium at Walnut High School. Be sure to be there at 7:00 a.m. so that we can begin distribution at 8:00 a.m. Turkeys and vegetables will be delivered at 2:30 this afternoon.

Eddie King reviewed activities at Isaiah's Rock with collections being held at the Fairplex and distribution will be at Chino City Hall on December 23 beginning at 8:00 a.m. Sortings will be held at the Fairplex on December 20 and 21 from 6-9:00 p.m. President Manuel Baca presented a check for $300.00 to Isaiah's Rock for the holiday festivities.

Lt.-Governor Anna Wu reviewed her history as a five-year old child immigrating to the United States with her parents and joining Kiwans when she was in high school. Anna is passionate about Kiwanis and Student Leadership Programs and working hard to increase membership and build new clubs. Membership is currently under 200,000 worldwide (mostly in the U. S.), the lowest since 1953. Our International President wants to establish 490 new clubs and 50 have been opened since October. Ken Manning is the Division 35 Membership Chair. We will use the Governor's visit on January 27 as a membership drive.

A winning opportunity was selected for Zach, but the Joker was not to be found.

...Hail, Kiwanis!
