October 19 & 26, 2018

October 19, 2018: Members Salvador Del Campo, Dick Clippinger, Richard Malooly, Ray McMullen, Aggie Kee, Manuel Baca, and President Ralph Mendez welcomed guest Stacey Tang, a former West Covina High School Key Club member who now lives in Rowland Heights. Manuel led us in our Pledge of Allegiance, Aggie offered this morning's Invocation, and Ralph led us in our patriotic song.

Dick will work with Diamond Bar Friends of the Library on placing a collection box for used crayons. Sal talked with Coco's and will revisit with them regarding crayon donation. Ralph is working on getting an eight-foot table cover reading "Kiwanis" for our community projects.

October 26, 2018: President Ralph Mendez welcomed Salvador Del Campo, Dick Clippinger, Matt Martinez, Richard Malooly, Ray McMullen, Manuel Baca, and Aggie Kee. Matt led us in our Pledge of Allegiance, Aggie offered today's Invocation, and Dick led us through our patriotic song.

Dick contacted Applebee's and Chili's regarding donations for the crayon program and will be working with the library.

Ray has been talking with Bert Brandt about our website and Bert will be passing on some suggestions for our improvement.

A winning opportunity was selected for Ralph, but the Joker was not available. A dollar was donated to the PTP container.

Hail, Kiwanis!

LT.-GOVERNOR GINA FANARA'S DIVISION 35 PROJECT 2018-2019

Collect used crayons to be melted down, molded into triangles, and distributed to hospitalized children.
Triangular shape prevents crayons from rolling off hospital trays.
